

Wednesday 25th March 2015

Research and Innovation technology projects in societal perspective

14.00 – 14.30	Registration and Coffee
14.30 – 14.50	David Guedj (EC, DG CNECT) Digital Society research in Horizon 2020
14.50 – 15.10	Bernd Carsten Stahl (Un de Montfort, UK) Responsible Research and Innovation
15.10 – 15.30	Achim Klabunde (EDPS) Internet Privacy Engineering Network (IPEN)
15.30 – 15.45	Coffee
15.45 – 17.00	Project Presentations (In Pecha Kucha style, time devoted per project dependent on number presenting) USEMP (Adrian Popescu) RRI-ICT Forum (Roger Torrenti) PRISMS (Charles Raab) OpenYourCity (TBC)
17.00 – 18.00	Networking
18.00	Close

Thursday 26th March 2015

The Citizen: Negotiating life in the digital world

9.00 – 9.10	George Metakides (President DEF) Welcome
9.10 – 9.30	Minister To Be Confirmed.
9.30 - 9.50	Paul Timmers (Dir Sustainable and Secure Society, DG CNECT, EC)
9.50 – 10.20	Peter Paul Verbeek (Univ Twente, NL) The Human-Technology relation
10.20 – 10.50	Coffee Break
10.50 – 11.10	Gerard Corcoran, Huawei Ireland
11.10 – 11.30	Dr TJ McIntyre, UCD Legal questions in the digital world
11.30 – 11.50	Muirne Laffan, RTE Digital Societal questions in the digital world
12.00 – 13.00	Breakout sessions Challenges of living in the digital world
13.00 – 14.00	Lunch
14.00 – 15.15	Plenary Panel discussion Life in the digital world – Future challenges Chair: Malcolm Crompton (IIS, former Privacy Comm. AU).

	Panellists: Ajit Joakar (FutureText, UK), Emilio Mordini (Responsible Research, SAS), Sadhbh McCarthy (CIES IRL), Charles Raab (University of Edinburgh),
15.15 - 16.15	Breakout sessions Potential solutions to the challenges for the citizen
16.15 – 16.45	Coffee Break
16.45 – 18.00	Plenary Panel Discussion The way ahead for the Citizen Chair: Kai Rannenber (Goethe University, Frankfurt) Panellists: Jeffrey Friedberg (Microsoft, US) Jacqui Taylor (Flying Binary, UK), Volkmar Lotz (SAP), Laurence Millar (GVG, AU)
18.00 – 18.30	Wrapping up and closure
20.00	Conference Dinner
22.00	After dinner socialising with Irish music.