

Irish Humanities Alliance

Conference 2019: call for proposals

Irish Humanities Alliance

IHA Conference 2019: call for proposals

The Irish Humanities Alliance (IHA) is a joint initiative of humanities researchers within eleven higher education and research institutions, including all the universities, North and South. The Alliance is working to generate public awareness of the importance of humanities teaching and research in higher education and society at large and aims to inform and shape public policy in both jurisdictions and in the EU.

The Irish Humanities Alliance is keen to foster an inclusive research culture that encompasses the entire range of humanities disciplines. The Alliance demonstrates the breadth of Irish expertise across the humanities disciplines through its annual conference. Recent IHA conferences have addressed the themes of Nationalism in Ulster, Migration and the Humanities and the intersection of medical & digital humanities and were open to a broad range of humanities disciplines (classics; ethnomusicology; history; languages; philosophy etc.).

The Irish Humanities Alliance is inviting proposals for its next Annual Conference. The successful applicants will propose an overall conference theme [200-250 words] that is inter- and trans-disciplinary and open to the broad spectrum of humanities fields.

Eligibility:

Academic staff at all stages of their career as well as post-docs; early career researchers on full-time, part-time or temporary contracts. All applicants must be currently employed by a Higher Education Institution that is affiliated with the Alliance. The Alliance especially welcomes interested proposals by collective projects and proposals that involve post-docs and early career researchers in the planning process.

Application Process

The successful applicants will have the opportunity to run a conference (in November 2019) under the auspices of the Alliance and underwritten up to €3,500. They will nominate individuals to join an IHA Steering Committee and this committee will take responsibility for organising the conference; issuing the Call for Papers etc.

Proposals should be submitted by 5pm Friday, 15 March 2019 by clicking on the link to this jot form. Proposals will:

- Outline a conference theme that is open to the broad range of humanities disciplines (250 words).
- Contain a draft Call for Papers (250 words) to be issued.
- Offer names and email addresses of three individuals to join the steering committee.

Queries may be emailed to the Director of the IHA, Dr Mel Farrell, at: m.farrell@ria.ie.

The IHA Board of Management will make a final decision on the appropriate theme for the 2019 conference and the Director will then take the appropriate action to work with the successful applicant on arranging the conference.

Further information

Irish Humanities Alliance – Promoting the Value of the Humanities
19 Dawson Street, Dublin 2, Ireland.
Email: info@irishhumanities.com
Website: www.irishhumanities.com